TRAVEL BLOG

I'm Claudine, from Munich, Germany. I work as a full-time Online Marketing Manager for a telco brand. Having spent a school exchange in Chicago and an internship in Philadelphia, followed by numerous travels to the US, my love to the States grew fast.

So in 2015 Country at Heart was founded: a travel blog, concentrating on the US and Canada, targeting travellers from the D/A/CH region.

Find travel tips for your vacation, recommendations for restaurants, sights and attractions. Browse recipes of the american kitchen and follow our travels live on Instagram. Discover the american world through my eyes and let yourself get inspired!
